Credit Policy -Terms and Conditions

All new customers are required to complete this form. Failure to submit this completed form will delay in a trading account being approved

All bulk fuel and oil invoices will be dated the day of delivery

All credit limits are subject to regular review and may be changed , based on the changing levels of credit worthiness

Trading terms for products and services supplied by Outback Fuel to Customers are strictly 14 days from date of invoice

Interest will be charged on overdue accounts at 2% per month and will commence at the beginning of the 14+ days overdue period and will be calculated daily until payment is received

48 hours notice must be given for bulk fuel orders/deliveries. We will endeavour to deliver the fuel as soon as possible but booked orders will receive priority.

Outback Fuel policy includes that fuel needs to be paid for on an load for load basis i.e we will not deliver a second load of fuel to customers who have an account outstanding, as we are required to pay our suppliers on 10 day credit system.

In the event of non payment of invoices, Outback Fuel Pty Ltd reserves the right to recover monies owed to it by engaging a third party collection agency to act on its behalf and may include enforcing reimbursement of all collection costs from the debtor

The applicant must inform Outback Fuel Pty Ltd of any queries arising from the invoice within 7 days

I/we _____ hereby agree to the terms and conditions for this credit application, as set out above.
